

PINOT GRIGIO 2011

Production: 150 Cases

Bottled: Winter 2011

Released: Spring 2011

Region: Southern Fleurieu

Colour: Pale straw with a lime green hue

Aroma: Lifted aromas of pear, apple and pink grapefruit, with hints of honeysuckle and other floral notes.

Palate: Bursting with citrus and pear with crisp green apples filling the palate. On the finish a distinctive mineral element combined with the crisp acid provide a refreshing long, persistent finish.

Drink: 1-3 years

Food: An excellent aperitif or base for a Kir, however equally at home Coffin Bay Oysters or a green Thai Curry.

